

Community Exhibit

Creative Spirit Community Art Center invites you to participate in the upcoming Community Exhibit that will be on display July 25th-August 16th, 2008. This open community show is a non-juried multimedia exhibit that celebrates the diverse talents of the North Country's local artists. Whatever media, style or subject you prefer, the Community Exhibit is a wonderful opportunity to display your artwork.

Creative Spirit is a gift store and gallery featuring artwork by regional artists. Located in Potsdam, NY, we strive to provide opportunities for artists to show, sell and promote their work. Since opening in 2001, we've presented over 50 exhibits in our gallery.

Eligibility

- This exhibit is a community show open to all interested artists.
- All types of media will be accepted.
- All work must be original.
- 2D work should be framed, wired and ready to hang.
- The artist must be able to exhibit submitted work for the entire duration of the show.
- There are no subject restrictions.
- No entrance fee is required.
- Please note that there are no size limits and no limit on the number of entries; however, in the event that we receive more submissions than the gallery can accommodate, Creative Spirit reserves the right to reject selected submissions.
